

File 20100902.1631: Notes for WAR to Dr Martin tonight: I am feeling more confused than ever by these meetings. I will try to get into the 21st September 2010 CDTAB as an observer. I have requested it, but it is probably not going to happen.

I missed my connection in Frankfurt coming back, cost me €250.

U.S. export control laws are being revised.
