Joe, Unfortunately, my legal team have put the kaibosh on us discussing that particular project. I'm sure you can work out why :-)

I am sorry, because it sounded like interesting research. Perhaps after things have calmed down, we can talk about it.

Please do keep in touch and don't take it personally - intellectually I'm really interested, but circumstances conspire against us. I wish you the best for the doctorate and anything else I can do, do shout.

Take care.

I.

Subject: can't have meeting on the 29th for legal reasons

Dear Dr Levy,

I was told by your PA that we cannot have our meeting on 29th June 2009 for legal reasons---perhaps having to do with my day-job at Lockheed Martin. I understand, although I am sorry I won't get to see you.

If you do not object, I'd like to send you the occasional email to keep you updated on the progress of my research. If you see anything interesting in them, just reply and I will get in touch.

Thank you sir,
