

File 20100903.1101: 'Export controlled information includes technical information such as that used for the design, production, modification, or use of an article having a military or dual-use application.'
Source: Lockheed Martin export control compliance training.

References