

File 20100824.1730: I just got back this (discouraging) reply from Dan Nichols at UCDMO:

RE: PhD research aimed at improving CDS accreditation

Mr Loughry,

I've given your request some thought but I really don't see how I can be of assistance. Neither my office nor the UCDMO directly participates in CDS accreditation. We're kind of on the periphery, and anything we could provide would be anecdotal at best, and I don't think either of us would be well served by that.

Good luck with your research.

So that didn't work.
