File 20090321.1700: Greg Edwards says that the CISSP/ISSEP is extremely valuable to LMCO—in proposal meetings lately, Northrop Grumman is showing up with multiple EPs, and Lockheed Martin has none. In the whole company, Northrop Grumman is said to have 800 EPs, and Lockheed Martin has a total of eight.

Don't forget to update LMPeople when you get a new cert.
