Weekly activity report no. 20090219.2233 (GMT) sequence no. 0072, week 5 HT

I met with Dr Martin yesterday; we talked about planning over the next few weeks.  I am reading US government standards at present, including a new book (by Susan Hansche) that is an overview of current standards.  I asked for some advice about locating equivalent UK government documents and Dr Martin pointed me in the right direction there.  I am going to draw a taxonomy of standards showing how they are interrelated.  Currently I am doing a lot of background reading but not progressing toward the goal of a new working tool.  Drawing the taxonomy ought to provide a direction out of the fog.

I received my formal transfer of status paperwork from the department.  No action required.

Upcoming deadlines and events:

26th February: meeting with Dr Ashbourn at St Cross College
5th March: 1500 Cakes Talk by Shamal
6th March: giving a talk at work 14th March: Hilary term ends 6th--7th April: TRUST 2009 in Oxford 17th April: submission deadline for 2009 NSPW 25th April: ISSEP exam in London
